Fango e Girasoli (Italian Edition) Agata Pulvirenti

Federica ha diciassette anni, è bella, vive e studia a Catania.

Ha un passato da dimenticare, lasciato a duemila chilometri di distanza.

A prima vista sembrerebbe avere tutto, tutto quello a cui, molte ragazze della sua età, danno più importanza.

Ma, in realtà, l'azzurro intenso dei suoi occhi nasconde un segreto impronunciabile, una paura antica e profonda che lei riesce a tenere a bada soltanto sfoggiando un atteggiamento freddo e scostante con tutti. No, non proprio con tutti. Non con Marty, la sua unica confidente e sicuramente non con Nico, il suo più caro amico e che per lei farebbe qualunque cosa.

La freddezza che mostra al resto del mondo è la sua barriera, la sua unica difesa, ma il suo giovane cuore, incurante delle sue paure e della sua inesperienza, scalpita per Simon, quello del quinto anno, il più ammirato e ambito ragazzo del liceo.

Ma come fai ad avere un ragazzo e a non lasciarti toccare?

Come fai a spiegargli che, per certe cose, tu non sarai mai pronta?

Federica crede di essere incapace di amare e il senso di colpa la distrugge ogni giorno un poco di più.

Certe volte però l'amore ti è già accanto, ardente eppure silenzioso e aspetta soltanto che tu lo veda per spalancarti le braccia.

<...Non posso stare con te, amandoti come io ti amo e chiedendomi sempre se per te è davvero lo stesso...> E quando lui le apre il suo cuore, che è la cosa più difficile da fare a quell'età, Federica saprà che l'amore le è sempre stato accanto e che da quest'amore pulito, impulsivo e giovane non ti devi difendere.

Ma proprio quando una nuova Federica sboccia davanti ai nostri occhi, ecco che quel "Fango", tenuto segreto e lontano, ritorna perché "lui", impunito, crede di poterla fare franca ancora una volta...
