Women everywhere have busy lives full of activity and distraction and often devoid of retreat or refreshment. Every life needs time for renewal, a time to gain perspective--to take a deep breath and relax. What better time to do this than the time spent with the Lord? It is vital to spend time with the Lord--to seek his help, strength, and wisdom. In Seeing His Heart in Yours' intense thirty days of verse and meditation, readers will find a breather and emerge refreshed and ready to take on the stress and struggles of everyday life. New author Kathy Proctor challenges readers to spend the next thirty days with the Lord in prayer and reflection. Learn how much richer knowing him makes each day. This journal will be an inspirational treasure to look back on for years to come. Begin now, and reap the rewards of an intimate heart to heart that only God can provide. Kathy Proctor has been actively involved in children's and women's ministry for over seventeen years. She is currently the Ladies Ministry Director at The Vine Church in Southern California. Her mom's terminal illness inspired her to write with the hope it would encourage women of all ages. Kathy lives with her husband of over twenty-six years and her three children.
