Being made as two different human species, a man and a woman is subject to compatibility and is made to connect with each other, often leading into intimate relationships and eventually, getting married. Many characteristics are taken into consideration. All couples are intended to share similar interests, such as in mental growth, spiritual growth, psychological aspects, and of course in a physical or a sharing of intimate moments. These are all considered normal by the society, since it is our nature as human beings. Intimacy begins as early as adolescence, believe it or not. But of course, teenagers begin to get curious sexually, as they grow old.
