The Way It Was Sid Baron

It is wartime Holland and Hitler's forces have taken taken over the country. A ten year old young man is caught in the crossfire between good and evil. This is the true story of Sid Baron who later immigrates to the U.S. from the Netherlands with his family in the aftermath World War II. His memories of those years living under wartime repression are filled with color and vivid detail. They will inspire others to relive their own childhood years and to fully appreciate the gift of life.
