Hollywood Forever Christopher Herz

Harold Hall's popularity, bolstered by a controversial speech caught on camera at the Hollywood DMV, has suddenly risen sky-high. Now strangers are taking his picture and uploading his every move to Facebook and Twitter. For a struggling actor looking to leave a legacy, it's a dream come true. But Harold's love, Elisha, doesn't even have a cell phone, let alone a hashtag. And when Harold is cast as a revolutionary leader in a groundbreaking new web show, he lands the role that was built to make him a legend...but not without a cost.

In order for Harold to truly transform into his role as a visionary, the producers at Golden State Broadcasting have asked him to "change a few things". Just when Harold's dreams start to come true, he has to make the decision between love or legend before the director yells, Cut.

"An actor walks into a DMV...That's not the beginning of a joke but of a brilliant novel written by Christopher Herz. Not only is Hollywood Forever a smart and witty five-star read--with genuine characters I want to meet for drinks--this book made me stop and question the influence of social media in my own life. If you find yourself checking Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube multiple times a day, Hollywood Forever will cause you to think, too (in a good way that makes you read a second and third time)! To sum it all up in four words: I loved this book!"

--Emily Snow, New York Times and USA Today bestselling author
