The Fallen Nun Louis Okereke

The Fallen Nun written by Louis Okereke takes you on a journey to early century West Africa as we follow the story of forbidden true love within the confines of the Catholic Church as conversations on priestly celibacy continue to spark on. With the Pope calling the ongoing requirements of celibacy in his Church a "problem" and reportedly believing he can find solutions, the Catholic Church is on the verge of undergoing a series of reform as he has raised expectations of change in his attempts to turn the Catholic Church into the more welcoming, merciful place he wants it to be. Be ready to be captured and connected with the brought-to-life story of the "Fallen Nun."
