Lives and Motors Andrea Bonardi

Twelve unpublished short stories inspired by the historical engineering that recount the passion for cars of the past.

The independence of three girls in Turin at the end of the 50s with a Fiat 500, a Beetle that comes, from the past, back in the life of a girl, a doctor that adds a spider to his collection of classic cars, an American boy that finds a wonderful friend but also an Oldsmobile from 1958, a Bugatti that survived the Second World War, a sad Duchess who finds again her smile thanks to her Maserati, these people and other stories of common people and their cars that, with their presence, have marked our daily life, taking us to school, hanging out with friends or grandparents, or for those already older, have represented our real first achievement, obtained by our labour. The stories are set in different historical periods, from the Second World War, up to our days.
