Segunda edición revisada. El hecho de que una novela comience con una elegía la hace sospechosa; mucho más cuando se trata de un homenaje a unas tías abuelas que en vida se dedicaban a resolver las complicaciones diarias con el poder del cannabis. Si añadimos a este dato, exótico por demás, que el resto de la familia era devota al espiritismo y con regularidad se reunía en la sala del abuelo para evocar las almas, obtenemos la receta perfecta para la construcción de quimeras. La sátira, el erotismo y el humor se entrelazan con el asunto político y social, así como con las emociones más íntimas, creando una amalgama de voces amorosas, temerosas o contestatarias, casi como un sueño en una noche de verano. La visión fragmentada de la memoria, alucinada en muchos aspectos, la distingue en la narrativa caribeña; ya que es el amuleto para cuestionar la realidad del momento.

Sin ti no soy yo is part of the Listado de libros recomendados en la campaña America reads Spanish compiled by The Spanish Institute for Foreign Trade (ICEX) and the Spanish Association of Publishers Guilds (FGEE) who have developed the campaign America Reads Spanish, aimed to increase the use and reading of our language through the thousands of libraries, schools and book stores of the US.
