As helpful as the video presentation is in illuminating and imparting the doctrines of grace, in the end there is no substitute for an open Bible and the desire to search the scriptures to see "whether these things (are) so." (Acts 17:11) To that end, the Jerry Johnson (M.A.C.S., M. Phil.), the primary author of the Amazing Grace DVD, has written a study guide to help you, your family, church, Sunday school class or cell group understand just how "amazing" grace truly is. This sixty-page book divides the DVD set into eight "class-sized" segments that run approximately thirty-five minutes each. Along with Bible verses, each section presents questions that are to be considered as the viewer watches the DVD. There are also extra theological notes to more firmly establish the principles of the Reformation.
