Installations, Mattress Factory, 1990-1999

Located on Pittsburgh's North Side, and internationally recognized for the quality of its artistic and educational programs, the Mattress Factory is one of the few museums in the world that focuses exclusively on installation art. Installations is an exciting exploration of site-specific artworks by Kiki Smith, John Cage, Ann Hamilton, Greer Lankton, and many other artists from around the world. Statements by the artists, verbal descriptions of the eighty-seven works presented during the 1990s and insightful essays on different facets of installation art add depth to this remarkable photographic record.
