Il Senzapalle (Italian Edition) Alberto Gais

Durante una delle sue consuete passeggiate nel bosco insieme a Cane, che in realtà è invece un lupo marsicano trovato cucciolo, infreddolito e affamato e diventato suo inseparabile compagno, Roberto sta pensando ai fatti suoi. A quando, un anno prima, ha lasciato ormai quasi sessantenne il lavoro, diventato vedovo dopo trent'anni di matrimonio senza figli, e preso la decisione di trasferirsi da Roma in quella contrada sperduta in Molise, dove ha acquistato un rustico con terreno, trasformato in una confortevole casa di campagna.

Il bosco è sempre deserto: frequentandolo, ha scoperto di avere un innato talento di chirurgo veterinario, prendendosi cura di piccoli animali selvatici che raccoglie feriti durante le sue escursioni. Ma quella mattina Cane è agitato, sente qualcosa, corre, sparisce per un po' alla sua vista e finalmente riappare per condurre Roberto davanti al corpo nudo di una ragazza, apparentemente morta.

Per Il senzapalle, come lui stesso si definisce consapevole della sua incompletezza caratteriale, comincia con quella scoperta la sua seconda esistenza, con eventi che lo travolgono, misteri da risolvere e colpi di scena, fino all'imprevedibile finale.
