Includes lists of "In Christ" promises and lists of promises from each book of the Bible. Each believer is complete in Christ spiritually but there are thousands of promises available for this life. God has made promises for provision, protection, emotional healing and personal victory. While God promises that our physical needs will be met, he has also promised to work in our hearts until we look just like Christ outwardly. This book will help you believe that God is for you and empower you to experience personal transformation into the image of Christ.
